REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Office of Superintendent of Schools
Bloomfield, N. J.

June 30, 1933.

*To the Board of Education,
Bloomfield, N. J.*

I have pleasure in presenting my fifth annual report as Superintendent of Schools of The Town of Bloomfield. The growth and development of the schools during the year 1932-1933 are indicated in the tables of statistics. The increased enrollment of 209 pupils over the previous year was confined to the Park School and High School. Children who would, in all probability, have left school, as soon as they could meet the requirements for school exemption certificates, were unable to find employment and continued in regular attendance at school.

During the school year 1932-1933 there were employed 282 teachers in all departments. The elimination of several special teachers and their transfer to the regular classroom made it possible to reduce the number of teachers over the previous year. A similar procedure for the coming school year will again reduce the number.

At the close of the school year Miss Bertha G. Drisko, formerly a regular grade teacher and later a member of the Domestic Science department presented her resignation thereby expressing her desire to retire after many years of useful service to our public school system. For a number of years Miss Drisko had charge of the sewing in the Park School organization during which time all the girls in each graduation class wore dresses made in the department supervised by Miss Drisko. I am sorry to announce, that due to economic conditions, this vacancy will not be filled at this time.

Local conditions of a community determine very largely the cost of education. The salaries paid teachers, and other employees in a community where rents and other living expenses are relatively high should of necessity be higher than in communities where these expenses are much lower. A community interested in the health and safeguarding of its children will of necessity spend more for education than a community not so interested. In our school system we have at all times been keenly interested in the welfare of the children and have thus maintained a limited health program. We have attempted to avoid overcrowded classes. Well trained teachers have been selected, supervision, though limited, has been effective, and each child has been given an opportunity by classification to do his or her part in accordance with the child's ability. All of these factors combined have made it possible to maintain an efficient and up-to-date school system in the face of many and perplexing problems.

The opening of the new Charles H. Demarest School in September, 1932, eliminated part time classes in three of our other elementary schools with the exception of the kindergarten classes. Beginning last fall kindergarten pupils were not admitted until five years of age which required a re-organization in the work of the lower grades and necessitated the transfer of certain teachers.

The teachers have been loyal and most cooperative. Whatever success we have had, must be attributed to the fine classroom work of the teachers, to the spirit of unity of the teaching staff, and to the progressive leadership of the members of the Board of Education. The future awaits the presentation of the unsolved problems, and promises the same degree of success as that which awaited the solution of the problems of the past.

Respectfully submitted,

EDGAR S. STOVER,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORTS OF DEPARTMENTS

Medical Inspection

The rules and regulations of the Board of Education provide, as far as possible, that every pupil be given a thorough medical examination each year. This is attempted very early in the school year, so that parents may know of the physical defects of their children. Supplementary examinations are given the pupils who need same from time to time.

The nurses inspect the classrooms and other parts of the school buildings regularly. They render first aid for injuries and visit homes in the interest of informing parents of certain conditions which may tend to improve the health of their children. Parents cooperate in large numbers. Milk is furnished to all pupils at a reduced cost, and where it is found that pupils cannot afford to purchase same either the school or the Home and School Association provide the necessary funds.

The following is a detailed report of the medical inspectors and nurses:

School Saving Fund

The work attached to the operation of this system in our schools is very simple when we consider the amount of good it brings to our pupils. Habits of thrift, economy and business methods are inculcated. The amounts saved by the pupils is less than in previous years due no doubt to the economic condition.
